ON TWO FRONTS: LATINOS & VIETNAM, premiering on PBS during Hispanic Heritage Month, captures the legacy of Latino veterans and their families during the Vietnam War. Airing Tuesday, September 22, 2015 at 10:00 pm (check local listings), the program examines the Latino experience during a war that placed its heaviest burden on working-class youth and deeply affected Latino communities.

Community engagement events will be taking place across the country between September and November 2015. For more information on the film, the community engagement campaign, and resources, including an educational curriculum and short-format video modules, visit: <http://ontwofrontsmovie.com>
